My dear Cecile and Alex.

This morning
we received your letter you mailed: February the 12th air mailed So please understand that one cannot reason with the mail and: "I received no letter from So and so" hence So and so did not write —

You mother misses your letters very much if they are late in coming. — we have such a pleasure with them — It is quite a ceremony — when we are comfortably installed She reads your letter aloud; and she can by intonation and other tricks of speech fill each sentence with a world of overtones. I could positively smell the sea-market as she read this morning your description of the Marché des poux. - as contained in your letter of Febr. 11th We are leaving this Saturday for Lee in Cambridge

W'll be at To D. Eli Robin

36 Highland Ave

Conbridge Mass

on Saturday May 15th we shall fly back to New Orleans. 100 Beverly Drive

I wish we could just once race in the fields with Dorothy Ceile - Annette. - affectionately

Pops
