

I'm writing them in a day or so, when I'll mention you.

Hoping this finds all well with thanks for your letter and love -

Aunt Edith.

I'm staying with Rosalind until other arrangements are made for her - and this big house sold & closed.

New Orleans, La.
May 27-1948.

Dear Beale - I do appreciate and thank you for your congratulation on engagements - which have since culminated in marriages of my two grand-daughters. Both were married such very fine fellows - so we're all correspondingly happy. I could be much more so - had not had such a great sorrow come to us at same time. Phyllis, Rose's daughter was married at 7 o'clock May 9th; Aunt Felicia passing away same evening at mid-night. Your mother has written you by letter - so I won't go into detail, sufficient to say my sorrow is very great,

Juliette and her fiancé are both students at University of Chicago, and will finish their respective courses - Juliette with an M. A. degree, June 1947. After their wedding, they'll return to University and live in a small apartment on the campus. I'm taking care of a little French orphan - Jewish - who lives with Mrs. Lya J. Vanmarcke -

22 Rue des Bourguignons,

Epinay sur Seine,

France - and have been told that is just about 15 miles from Paris. In your letter you mentioned desiring to be near Paris, so, if you communicate with Mrs. Vanmarcke - perhaps she can assist you. The little girl I've in a way adopted is Helga Steinlein.

but I'm trying my very best to be courageous. I'm staying in this huge house with Rosalind until other arrangements are made for her - and the house is sold or closed up Sunday May 16th Jeannette, Bronne's daughter was married - both weddings being in gardens, both brides looked beautiful and the weddings were Hope you keep well and when the P. enters this world in December all will be well with you and

2. Juliette, Bronne's second daughter will be married at Xmas time her engagement having been announced at Jeannette's wedding.